

MOHAVE COUNTY WORKSHOP SCHEDULED FOR JANUARY 27, 2012

On

Marzano Strategies in Teaching and Instruction

Question 9: What will I do to communicate high expectations for all students?

WHEN: Friday, January 27, 2012

TIME: 8:00 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. (continental breakfast at 7:30 a.m.)

PLACE: Bullhead City School District, 1004 Hancock Road, Suite 100,
Bullhead City, AZ 86442

Jane Doty Fisher will be returning to Bullhead City to present Marzano Strategies in teaching and instruction. She will be referring to the book by Robert J. Marzano, The Art and Science of Teaching. This next session will focus on Question 9: What will I do to communicate high expectations for all students?

Action Step 1: Identify Your Expectation Levels for Students

Action Step 2: Identify Differential Treatment for Low-Expectancy Students

Action Step 3: Make Sure Low-Expectancy Students Receive Verbal and Nonverbal Indications That They Are Valued and Respected

Action Step 4: Ask Questions of Low-Expectancy Students

Action Step 5: When Low-Expectancy Students Do Not Answer a Question Correctly or Completely, Stay With Them

This presentation is funded by the Mohave County Professional Development project. The project requires that all districts that attend the workshop use the "trainer of trainer" methodology by taking the information back to the districts with an implementation plan.

Please RSVP by Monday, January 23, 2012 with the names of the participants from your district. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call me at (928) 704-5722.
